

COVID-19 Response: Arts and Cultural Community-Based Partnerships

On January 6, 2022, the CDC Foundation announced it was providing grants to 30 community-based organizations engaging the arts to build COVID-19 vaccine confidence throughout the United States. Below is the list of organizations announced on January 6.

Alabama

The University of Alabama

Alaska

Spirit of Youth

California

Blue Sky Sustainable Living Center

CONTRA-TIEMPO

Kids in the Spotlight, Inc

Colorado

Museo de las Americas

Georgia

Dad's Garage, Inc.

Out of Hand Theater

University of Georgia

Illinois

Arts Alliance Illinois

Massachusetts

Community Music School of Springfield

Michigan

Corner Health Center

West Michigan Center for Arts and Technology

Minnesota

Asian Media Access, Inc.

Springboard for the Arts

Missouri

Saint Louis Story Stitchers Artists Collective

New York

Hip Hop Public Health Inc.

Jamaica Center for Arts and Learning, Inc.

Sing for Hope

Oregon

Whiteaker Community Council

South Dakota

Vermillion Cultural Association

Texas

Migrant Clinicians Network

University of Houston

Utah

Spy Hop Productions

Virginia

Studio Two Three

Tidewater Arts Outreach

Washington

Amplifier Foundation

Olympia Family Theater

Somali Health Board

Wyoming

Wyoming Arts Council

